Our cuddly soft merino wool yarn Laos is characterized by the already braided wool structure, which gives your knitwear a unique look. The merging, tropical colors of the yarn also create an absolutely harmonious and soft color gradient.
This allows you to knit or crochet sweaters, t-shirts, jackets, scarves and even bags that have incredible longevity and durability, while still feeling exceptionally comfortable against the skin. With 90% merino wool, you get knitwear that has a completely natural antibacterial effect and therefore produces significantly fewer odors and also offers outstanding insulation protection against cold and heat. In combination with the additional 10% polyamide in theyarn, you can knit cozy,
