Stylish leather and metal shoulder strap

The Cala XL shoulder strap is made from both leather and metal. Unlike the Cala, Cala XL has extra length to make it longer, making it ideal for any crossbody bag. Most of the shoulder strap is a metal chain, giving it a raw look that will add a cool contrast to your knitted or crocheted bags.

A leather strap has been added in the middle of the chain to make the leather strap more comfortable to wear.

Cala XL is perfect for the "do it yourselfers", better known under the name "DIYers" as it is detachable and can be added to any bag that you like. Cala XL is great for larger bags and crossbodies and goes perfectly with the Caisa.

Features
Raw and edgy metal chain
