Shoulder strap in leather and metal with an edge

The Cala shoulder strap is made from both leather and metal. Most of the leather strap is a metal chain, giving it a raw and edgy look that creates a cool contrast to your knitted or crocheted bags.

For added comfort, a leather strap has been placed in the middle of the chain.

Cala is perfect for "do it yourselfers," better known as "DIYers," as it is detachable and can be added to any bag you like. The strap pairs perfectly with Caisa, which you can sew onto your projects.

Features
Raw and edgy metal chain
Small leather strap for comfort
Ideal for DIY projects
Detachable shoulder strap
