Handmade knitting Bag

Saturn from muud is a stylish, handmade bag in canvas for perfectly storing and carrying your knitting and crochet projects. With carefully crafted details, the project bag makes it easy for you to bring your creative projects on the go. At home, the crossbody bag provides you with a thoughtfully designed storage solution. You can also use it as a stylish toiletry bag to stay organised when travelling.

Product information

Designed with practical outer and inside lining pockets, the crochet hooks bag provides space for most of your knitting supplies. Two holes at the top allow you to leave your yarn in the bag while knitting – and keep your yarn tangle-free.

Store your precious projects and tools in style. The everyday bag is designed to make your everyday life a little easier – without having to compromise on design. The beautiful canvas bag has a timeless look.
