LÍF is a hug pillow that is perfect for pregnancy support, relieving back pain and also improves sleep quality.

LÍF is a pillow filled with state-of-the-art neps from pure new Icelandic wool. The outer covers are made from pure cotton. LÍF is designed so that you can modify your pillow to your own needs: it is composed of an outer pillowcase and an inner pillow. The inner pillow has a side zipper that allows you to add or take out wool neps/filling, adjusting the firmness to your wishes.

Lopidream products are eco-friendly, sustainable and animal friendly. Our products are naturally hypoallergenic.
