As the name suggests, Merino Silk is spun from soft, extra-fine Merino wool and lustrous mulberry silk.
Mulberry silk is the absolute best and finest silk available, and the combination with extra-fine Merino wool makes Merino Silk a truly wonderful yarn.
The high percentage of mulberry silk gives the yarn its beautiful luster and provides added durability.
The silk also gives the yarn a natural drape and a beautiful drape for your knitwear, while the Merino wool provides extra softness and a slightly woolly appearance.
