Product information

A stunning undyed yarn spun using the natural shades from the pure British fleece of Bluefaced Leicester, which offers a superior and luxurious material for knitting, crocheting, hand-dyeing and felting. With lustrous fibres that add character and depth, this soft and silky roving has been minimally processed to maintain its raw and natural beauty. The versatility of the yarn makes it a perfect choice for everyday garments and accessories, as well as special projects to be cherished and passed down.
