Product information

A soft and silky DK made with 100% Bluefaced Leicester in a range of evocative, natural, undyed shades, as well as beautiful rich tonal hues, each of which depict the depth and captivating colours of the countryside that surround us here in the heart of Yorkshire. The excellent stitch definition and high-quality nature of this wool can be displayed across all styles of knitting from intricate cables and colourwork to simple lace and stocking stitch. This DK yarn really is one of the finest in Britain – wool at its purest and a superb example of the incredible quality of British fleece. Show off its lustrous finish and beautiful drape on sweaters, shawls and more.
