little bit of luxury, a little bit of texture, and a whole lot of cozy. Rowan Mohair Tweed is a brand-new DK-weight yarn that combines 70% Merino wool with 30% Mohair for a fabric that is soft, warm, lightweight, and beautifully fluffy without being overly fuzzy.

The Merino gives it structure and substance, while the Mohair adds that lovely halo and a subtle texture. It’s the kind of yarn that makes even a simple sweater, cardigan, hat, or scarf feel a little more special. And because it’s DK weight, it’s
